

1. Research Printpack prior to the interview.
2. Come well rested and be mentally prepared.
3. Dress professionally.
4. Arriving early leaves a better impression.
5. Bring multiple copies of your resume.
6. Maintain eye contact, be a good listener and let the interviewer guide you.
7. Expect to feel a bit nervous – this is normal.
8. Use specific examples of your background as it relates to the position.
9. Thank the interviewer for their time and ask about the next steps.
10. Be prepared to ask questions.